F. L. ROWE, Publisher, Cincinnati, O.

The CHRISTIAN LEADER stands firm for pure apostolic Christianity in opposition to all departures from the clearly defined work and worship of the church. It has passed through fiery trials, but seen hard times, and yet it does not falter or turn aside from the Lord's way to please men.

A BETTER DAY.

In August, 1916, the publisher of the Christian Leader announced to the readers of that paper that after Oct. 1st all unkind personalities and unprofitable discussions would be kept out of the Leader, and the paper would publish only such articles as possessed the spirit of the Master and such as would edify the readers and strengthen them in the work of the Lord.

A few said it could not be done; but by the grace of God it has been done, and will continue. After over two years' trial we are made to rejoice at the hearty support given us by all our writers. And our rejoicing is shared by our readers, hundreds of whom have voluntarily expressed themselves in the strongest words.

If you are not a reader of the Leader, we invite your patronage, and will be glad to send you some samples to hand to other brethren. If you believe in peace and harmony among the children of God, help us.

The price to old and new subscribers is $2.00.
